

Power Platform on Teams Workshop

Register Now

Register now, and our scheduling team will reply to setup a One-on-One session with you and our team of experts.

Automate your business process by integrating the power platform into your Microsoft teams

At People Tech, we have taken a big bet on Microsoft Teams and integrating Power platform on Teams. In addition, we are working with Microsoft to leverage funding options to implement solutions for our customers.

People Tech's business infrastructure management services are designed to meet unique industry demands and build a betting collaboration in the workplace.

People Tech Group: a Microsoft Solutions Partner, is a leading global professional service company with over 2000 professionals and industry specialists. With our team of Microsoft Certified Professionals, People Tech is committed to high business standards, and our partner.

Our expertise & capabilities

- > 100+ trained Microsoft Specialists
- > Early adopters and a Microsoft go-to partner for validating new technologies
- > People Tech works directly with the Microsoft Product team to serve solutions like Power Platform and others.
- > One of few select partners allowed to work on and conceptualize Power platform on Teams–Doing extensive product testing
- > Microsoft chose us because of our deep knowledge of App innovation, data visualization & Low-code and no-code development.
- > Deep domain expertise in integrating Power Platform on Microsoft Teams and developing collaboration between employees for more effective workplace management.
- > We have addressed significant product defects and have been instrumental in streamlining Microsoft Teams.

Integrate your Power Platform on Teams

Who can Attend

This Workshop will be most beneficial for people in these Industry Roles -

- > Director and VP
- > Lead and managers
- > Decision Makers of product development
- > Chief People Officer
- > Product managers

Why use power platform in Teams

- > Use the Power Apps app from the default Teams catalog as a personal app and share it with teams in Teams.
- > Manage custom apps created using Microsoft Power Platform apps and develop apps using low-code & no-code
- > Manage access to Microsoft Power Platform apps in the Teams admin center
- > Allow or block Microsoft Power Platform apps for your organization or allow specific users.
- > Use audit logs to investigate Microsoft Power Platform installation activity.
- > Power Automate flows by using the new Power Apps app in Teams & Chatbots by using the new Power Virtual Agents app in Teams.

The outcome of the Workshop

Join this Workshop to kickstart your HR automation journey. With this Workshop, you will get the following:

- > Trends in Low-code and no-code development & how to leverage citizen developers
- > Dedicated demo/solutions for the challenges that can be solved using Low code
- > A customized plan of integrating the Power platform into Teams apps
- > Connect with industry peers, listen to their challenges and probable solutions
- > Input from the Microsoft product team to enhance the low-code development strategy
- > Prioritized use cases specific to your organization & manage them with the Power Platform

Register for Workshop

Register now, and our scheduling team will reply to setup a One-on-One session with you and our team of experts.